Here is a rare 2002 Aztek Red Cadillac Eldorado ETC Coupe. 2002 was the last year for the Eldorado and Cadillac produced 1,595 special "Collector Series" models to commemorate the end of the Eldorado which was originally introduced in 1953. The Collector Series was only available in 2 colors: 1296 were painted Alpine White, while only 300 were produced in this RARE Aztek Red. These are unique models that include a monotone paint scheme, a Black Leather interior with Red Accents and Embroidered Logo. This car has the numbered series plate #1036 of 1596 produced to commemorate the end of the Eldorado. This car comes with the original owner's manual and the WINDOW STICKER which shows that this Cadillac listed for $50,062. The collector series includes just about every available option, the only additional options are the sunroof and built in garage door opener which this car has. This beautiful Cadillac Eldorado has been meticulously maintained and looks like new, always garaged and stored in the winter. Non-Smoker
